Dear Ms. Donovan,

Thank you for contacting the Ontario Human Rights Commission (OHRC). We have reviewed your request for the OHRC to conduct a public inquiry regarding your concerns that the Human Rights Tribunal (HRT) is not equipped to address retaliation against whistleblowers in its cases. We have reviewed the supporting documents you provided including your open letter to the HRT and decisions from the HRT and courts. The OHRC receives many requests from the public to become involved in human rights matters and cannot accommodate every request. The OHRC will not become involved in this matter.

If you would like to receive advice or assistance with your HRT matter please contact the Human Rights Legal Support Centre (HRLSC). They can be reached at Toll Free at: 1-866-625-5179. For more information about their services you can visit their website at: <https://hrlsc.on.ca/>.

Regards,

Ontario Human Rights Commission
